

'Welcome' Pack

Dear Slave,

I would like to congratulate you on successfully passing the recruitment process. I am pleased to become your new owner and look forward to you serving me for a long time to come. As part of your immediate transition to my property and the way of life I have planned for you I would like you to read through and digest this welcome pack. Everything contained in this document and the rules I sent to you earlier in the week comes into effect immediately and I expect you to follow them to the letter. From what you have shown me this far I am confident you will do so. I will always keep you safe, but not always comfortable. I know, from our conversations, that you understand that.

I expect you to have obtained any items you don't already own and I have asked you to get within 7 days of receiving this document.

I look forward to welcoming you formally to your new life when we meet. Master

J

Appearance

What you wear is an important part of your life. It is how the world sees you and reflects upon me as your Master. I expect my property to present a certain image that is pleasing to me and presents a positive image. I am also aware that, as my slave, clothing is considered a luxury. It also needs to reflect your status & as such some concessions on your part must be made.

At no time may you wear underwear unless I have said you can. I will choose 2 pairs to keep for you and I will burn the rest. Socks are for work only and must not be worn at any other time. In the privacy of my house you will be kept naked apart from ankle, wrist & thigh cuffs along with a collar and of course your ball weight and butt plug.

When away from my house you will wear a uniform of my choice. You are not to consider these as clothes, they are a uniform that reflect your status. See the 'kit list' below to see what you need. Pockets must be cut out of jeans. you need to carry your own stuff and I need access to you.

You will wear a symbol of my ownership at all times. I will decide what this is when you are in my possession. You will wear a butt plug at all times, when in or around my presence this will be a lockable variety. You may remove it to douche, which you will do twice daily. You will also wear a ball weight or chastity device at all times. Although you are not allowed to touch your cock under any circumstances. It belongs to me now and the only reason you are allowed to keep it is because I enjoy playing with and torturing it. As far as you are concerned it is for piss only. I can't stress that enough.

You will keep your body free from hair as agreed. You will shave to the routine I set for you. This will involve you shaving parts of your body daily, including under your arms and your pubic area. For now you are to keep your hair as it is, however I understand you are starting a new job in a month and I will take you to get a new hair cut of my choice the weekend before you start. You will then maintain that hair cut.

I intend to get your septum, cock and nipples pierced as I like how these piercings look on a slave and think they are of use to me in maintaining you. I intend to stretch them so that they can all take a padlock directly as I think that could be a useful attribute. When you are pierced you will not remove them and touching should be kept to a minimum. I will decide upon the jewellery fitted to each one. For example I may choose to fit you with a prince's wand for a while or nipple shields. I may or may not get you circumcised.

I also plan to get you marked with a tattoo or several tattoos in the future. You have already agreed that one of these can be your new slave name & your SLRN barcode. These, however, are all things for the future & I may change my mind.

Positions

There are 6 main positions that I expect you to use,

- i) Attention: slave stands, feet and ankles together, almost touching. Arms are at the sides, fingers curled slightly under and held at the thighs. slave maintains a formal posture, with the back straight. Eyes are open and the focus is on the horizon. slave is not allowed to move or shift their gaze.
- ii) At Ease: slave spreads feet apart (moving the left foot only) to the width of the shoulders - arms behind the back, holding one wrist with the other hand.
- iii) Kneel up: This position is the same as standing "Attention," only the slave does it on the knees.
- iv) Kneel Down: slave kneels with knees far apart, resting back on the heels. The back is straight and the hands rest on the thighs - palms up. Chin does not drop, but the eyes are lowered slightly.
- v) "Available": slave kneels down, tilts the head back, closes the eyes and opens the mouth.
- vi) Presenting: slave is down on all fours with the nose touching the floor, legs slightly apart making sure it's arse hole is clearly visible. Slave should use a variation of this position for eating.

Punishments.

I will punish slave for any infraction of the rules, this document or for displeasing me in any way. I may also choose to punish you just because I have a bad day or for your own development. Punishment will normally take the form of corporal punishment along with some other type of punishment. Examples could include but are not limited to writing lines, humiliation, locked in the garden etc. Basically anything I say. After any punishment you will thank me by saying "Thank you Master for punishing for ___Insert offence here___ me by ___Insert punishment here___" You will then, kneel and look at the floor until instructed otherwise. If any punishment is not complete for whatever reason it will commence from the start again at the earliest convenience.

Protocol

You will not stand in my presence unless you are being inspected, carrying a large object that you can't fit in your teeth or are in public. You may also stand if I have given you a task that requires you to do so or have been instructed to do so by me. Unless I instruct otherwise there is no need to stand if we have visitors or at meal times.

In private you will call me Master. There are two exceptions to this. If you are doing labourer type jobs or I have you as a skin you should call me Boss. If you are my animal you may only make the appropriate noises (eg bark, oink etc).

You are to treat other everyday people and my friends with respect. They are your betters and deserve to be treated as such. You should refer to them as Sir or Madam as appropriate. You should go out of your way to be helpful to them. You will serve my friends as appropriate and will soon get to know whom to serve how.

You must never initiate communication with anyone, including myself, unless it would be rude not to or they have spoken to you first. The exception to this is between 7PM and 7:30PM when you may speak freely to me, maintaining the respect I am due. I am a fan of gagging as it makes sure I am not unnecessarily disturbed so you can expect plenty of things in your mouth.

If you are home alone I expect you to be kneeling by the door to greet me on my return. If you are on a chain that restricts your movement you will do this as close to the door as possible. When I enter you will kiss my shoes before removing them and proceed to make me a drink of my choice.

When I visit the bathroom for whatever reason I will expect you to follow and kneel outside as I may have tasks for you to do. I will of course close the bathroom door; you however won't under any circumstances – like the rest of your life, you get no privacy here. You may only visit the bathroom to piss with my permission. I may wish to use it for something else. I am going to try and replace your ability to shit with douching sessions.

When in public you will carry all baggage, open and close all doors and always walk with me. You will stand if I stand and sit if I sit but only on signal from me. You may not speak without my permission and I will always decide what you eat and drink.

I will expect you to carry out any tasks to the best of your ability and to a high standard. I may choose to restrain you while you carry out a task or have you complete it in a certain way or manor. This should not affect the finished task. You will be expected to do housework, gardening, cooking, house maintenance etc.

I am not one for the whole scene but when at any of these events you will probably be gagged, restrained in some way and on a leash. If you are able to speak you are not to engage in any form of conversation without my permission. If a different Master or slave speaks to you then you must reply "(Sir)I am property of Master James and as such will require his permission to speak to you".

On the occasion we attend a club or event I am likely to want to display your plugged man cunt or locked cock. I will rarely want your unlocked cock on display however as it belongs to me. In fact I will probably put you on display like this in any appropriate situation we are in as I believe it really helps to remind him of his place and break down inhibitions when the most intimate parts of him are on full display.

Arriving at Master's house

You will not have a key for my house at least for the first 6 months. I will review after that. My house is very private so you should have no problem completing the following routine each time you arrive. You will be able to tell if I am in by a vase in the kitchen window. If it is there, I will be in.

If I summon you then I expect you to be here within half an hour. If not, you need to text me to say why. You will, however be punished with 2 strokes of the cane for every 5 minutes you are late plus you will be locked out of the house for the exact amount of time I have been waiting, no matter what the weather.

If I am in you are to go round the back of the house, take off your uniform & fold it neatly. Make sure you are wearing your collar & cuffs (thigh, wrist & ankle) as well as your harness. Of course you should still be wearing your ball weight/chastity belt and butt plug. At this point you are to ring the bell and kneel to await my arrival. I will come and inspect you. I may choose to rinse you down with the hose.

If I am not in you are to proceed to the rear of the garden where the old aviary is. You will leave your mobile phone in the box by the door and enter the aviary. You will remain clothed but will put on your collar and cuffs etc. You will enter the aviary and lock the door. You will secure your collar to the chain attached to the aviary side. If you need to piss, you may do so in the container provided but must ensure that you have drunk it all before I return. When you hear me come home you are to stand to attention until I come and inspect you. Again I may choose to hose you down at this point.

Other details

I have decided that I will call you "cum dump" mainly because that is how I see you, although in certain circumstances you will be called "matty boi". I am also going to get you a bar-coded dog tag that you must keep attached to your cock or balls somehow. I suggest using the ball weight or chastity device to help in this.

You are to get a new email address. I know you know much about websites, so I want you to register cumdump.co.uk & mattyboi.co.uk. Your new email address will be iam@cumdump.co.uk. You are to give this email address to all new contacts. Your family and existing friends may still use your old one to spare your shame, but I want emails redirected to the new one. I also want to know the password for the new one so I can keep an eye on it. [note: These email addresses are no longer used]

You are to start a blog at both web addresses. These will be mainly private posts that only I can access but I will allow you to post some public ones with my approval.

From now on you will only watch tv/films that your Master approves of. In times of chastity you will probably be required to watch a porn film each day. At all other times you are forbidden from accessing porn as it is too much of a temptation with regard to you touching your cock. You will also only listen to music that Master chooses for you.

As for reading, the only fiction that you are allowed to read now is BDSM fiction as it is more appropriate and true to life for a slave like you. Reading the likes of Harry Potter really isn't on as it is aimed at your superiors and may give you ideas above your station. You can find plenty of BDSM literature on the internet.

I will be setting parental restrictions on your internet access so that you can only access certain sites at certain times of the day.

Below is a list of things you need to get so that you can serve me properly. I expect you to have got them within 7 days or be in a position to prove that they are ordered but delayed.

I understand that you have to go away for work shortly after you start serving me. I realise that this is a prior engagement and that you will be staying in a hotel. This luxury isn't really in keeping with your life as a slave so I am imposing a condition. Normal rules apply but you may use the bed as requested. There is a price for this luxury. You must ensure that you apply 5 cm of tooth paste to your butt plug just before you go to bed. You are also to apply 3 cm to your cock head. You will have to use a cotton bud to get it past the chastity device and make sure it goes all over the head and deep down your slit. You must be naked at all times in the hotel room, the curtains are to remain open. You will not visit the bar, watch TV or use the internet. You should spend all your spare time working your slave hole so that you can comfortably take the next size up in a butt plug. For the duration of the weekend, you will wear your ball weight. When naked in the room you should attach it to your full suitcase or bag so that you are dragging that around the room when you move. At night it should hang over the end of the bed. Nipple clamps should be worn one hour on, one hour off. This includes under your work clothes and at night. When in the hotel room and not asleep a peg should be attached to your tongue. You have indicated there are buffet lunches. You must put one sausage roll from each lunch or similar up your slave hole and replace the plug. It should remain there for the rest of that day. You will save your piss in bottles. You may not shower until 30 minutes before you check out when you will bathe and wash your hair in the piss you saved for 20 minutes. You may not dry your hair. You must drive home naked from the waist down. Enjoy the bed.

Until we meet
